Hi All

Well this mild weather is providing us all with far more angling opportunities than we get most winters so why not come over to New Claygate Lakes on a Monday and have a fish with us. Angling legend and Marukyu UK boss Roy Marlow has just agreed to become our latest patron

Many should remember Roy as partner to the late great Ivan Marks, Roy has given us a couple of brilliant prizes for our festival in June and is hoping to attend as well, he loves his fishing and is always pleased to answer questions on angling. For the Festival we are hoping to have prizes of some good value for the top 6 anglers rather than cash so keep an eye on this column for updates.

One of our other patrons, Mr Russ Evans has started an angling programme every Wednesday Night on Ridge Radio between 9pm and 11pm, you can listen in by logging into Ridge Radio at: <http://ridgeradio.co.uk/> and then clicking on the web player. Russ will answer angling questions and pick up on discussion points if you email the station (address on Ridge Radio web site).

Gearing up for the Big One on 10th/11th March, we are once again joining Linda on the Freshwater and Sea Informer stand so come over and say hello .

Date for your diary: 16th - 17th June 2012
